

BSBESB402

Establish legal and risk management requirements of new business ventures

To get a trade contractor or nominee supervisor licence in Queensland, you must complete an approved managerial qualification: This course is approved by QBCC as meeting this requirement.

The learning focuses on identifying and complying with regulatory requirements, legal, taxation and insurance requirements, and risk management of a small business.

The course covers areas of small business such as business structure, licensing and insurance requirements, workplace health and safety, business premises, taxation law & employment.

DELIVERY MODE

Delivered online with trainer access via email, phone and video conferencing.

DURATION

Duration of study and assessment is approximately 20 hours. After successfully completing the unit, you will be issued a Statement of Attainment.

COSTS

Contact us for course costs.

WHEN CAN I START?

Any time! Once you are enrolled and your course fee is received, you can start your training immediately.

CONTACT US

To find out more information about this qualification, fees and to check your eligibility contact us.

rto@skill360.com.au

1300 933 358

