

SITHFAB021 Responsible Service of Alcohol (RSA)

RSG certification for work in the hospitality industry

It is mandatory for certain people involved in the Queensland Liquor Industry to have a current Responsible Service of Alcohol (RSA) certificate.

RSA JOBS

- Food and beverage attendants
- Licensed bottle shops and drive-through personnel
- Brewery and distillery cellar door staff
- Supplier sales representatives
- Any role that works in an establishment that serves or sells alcohol

This course covers the legal requirements for employment in licensed premises. Skill360 is now delivering RSA face-to-face where you can learn from real industry experts in a fun, hands-on, scenario-based environment about the many topics surrounding RSA such as:

- QLD liquor laws
- Selling and serving alcohol responsibly
- Identifying intoxicated patrons
- Impact on community and environment

This fun and interactive training is regularly available at sites around Cairns, Brisbane and the Gold Coast.

On completion of this one-day course, you will receive a nationally recognised SITHFAB021 Statement of Attainment which will allow you to work in licensed venues.

Contact us to find out about course dates in your area.